| Ensure transparent, conservative and reasonable debt financing as a source of funding to support the City's long-term capital plans and strategies while maintaining long-term financial affordability, flexibility and sustainability. | The City of Edmonton is subject to limits both for total debt and debt servicing by the Municipal Government Act and by the City's internal Debt Management Fiscal Policy (C203C). The Municipal Government Act debt limit is 2 times the revenue of the City and the debt servicing limit is 35% of City revenues. For this calculation, revenues are net of capital government transfers and contributed tangible capital assets. The internal Debt Management Fiscal Policy (C203C) sets more conservative debt service limits at 22% (total debt) of City revenues and 15% (tax-supported debt) of Tax Levy Revenues. | Based on the limits set under the Municipal Government Act, as of December 31, 2017, the City had used 51.5% of its debt limit and 26.8% of its debt servicing limit. Based on the limits under the Debt Management Fiscal Policy, as of December 31, 2017, the City had used 73.0% of its tax-supported debt servicing limit and 53.6% of its total debt servicing limit. | Total debt and debt servicing are in line with the limits set by the Municipal Government Act and by the internal Debt Management Fiscal Policy (C203C). | | | | |
