Summary of Changes - Proposed Public Engagement Policy

Current	Proposed change	Rationale
The policy is supplemented by the City's: • Public Engagement Procedure • Public Engagement Framework	Public engagement activities follow the processes described in the Public Engagement Framework.	Public Engagement Procedure is collapsed into the Public Engagement Framework to create a single supporting document to the policy.
[None]	Diversity and Inclusion - The City values diversity of perspectives and lived experience. City staff will ensure efforts are made to accommodate diverse needs in order to reduce barriers to participation, in alignment with the City's diversity and inclusion commitments and use of GBA+.	Statement added to recognize the need to accommodate diverse needs in order to reduce barriers to participation in alignment with the City's diversity and inclusion commitments and use of GBA+.
[None]	Indigenous Peoples - Engagement should be inclusive of Indigenous Peoples and honour the City of Edmonton's Indigenous memorandums of understanding and relevant guiding policies and frameworks.	Statement added to acknowledge that engagement should be inclusive of Indigenous Peoples and honour the City of Edmonton's Indigenous memorandums of understanding and relevant guiding policies and frameworks.
[None]	Digital Engagement - Digital engagement uses technologies to	Statement added to specifically describe how digital engagement support, enhance, or expand public participation and civic engagement processes.The City of Edmonton's digital engagement resources and tools are intended to increase accessibility and broaden engagement.	leverages technology to increase accessibility and broaden engagement.

Public Engagement Spectrum	Moved to Public Engagement Framework.	Section addresses operational requirements, making it consistent with the new corporate policy framework.
Vision for Public Engagement	Moved to Public Engagement Framework.	Section addresses operational requirements, making it consistent with the new corporate policy framework.
Supporting Activities for Public Engagement	Moved to Public Engagement Framework.	Section addresses operational requirements, making it consistent with the new corporate policy framework.

May 27, 2021 Executive Committee Report: CE00508