

Edmonton Arts Council

Public Art Policy presentation
August 9, 2021

The future of public art in Edmonton is about people, and is guided by the same values as the City of Edmonton:

Access

Belonging

Live

Thrive

Create

Preserve

Concept for Objects of Connection (Touch Tone) by Caitlind r.c. Brown & Wayne Garrett, planned for Butler Memorial Park in Jasper Place

Public Art creates opportunities for the City, its citizens, and artists to work together to shape the future of Edmonton.

- Create access for citizens to participate.
- Create conditions for artists and communities to thrive.
- Deliberately shape the place we want to live in.
- Actively engage citizens and artistic leaders.

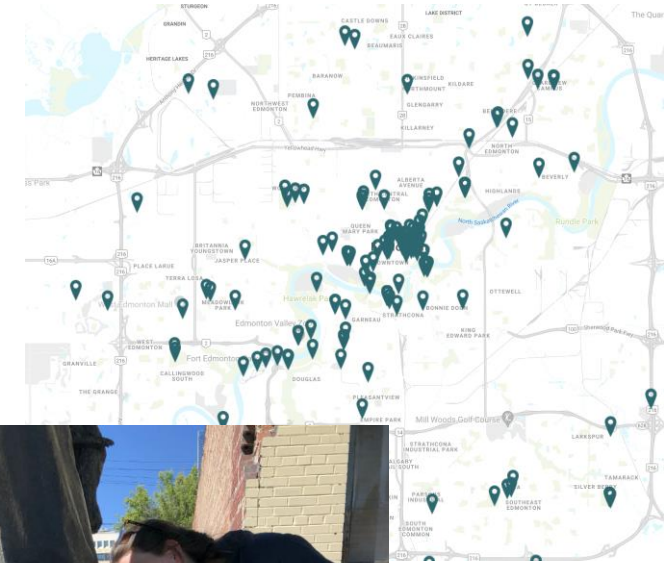

Created following a series of workshops with more than 200 residents of the Calder Community, this shimmering mosaic by Spacemakeplace interweaves stories, facts, histories, cultural patterns, and colour to create a true community-based artwork.

City-wide integrated public art planning based on an artistic roadmap.

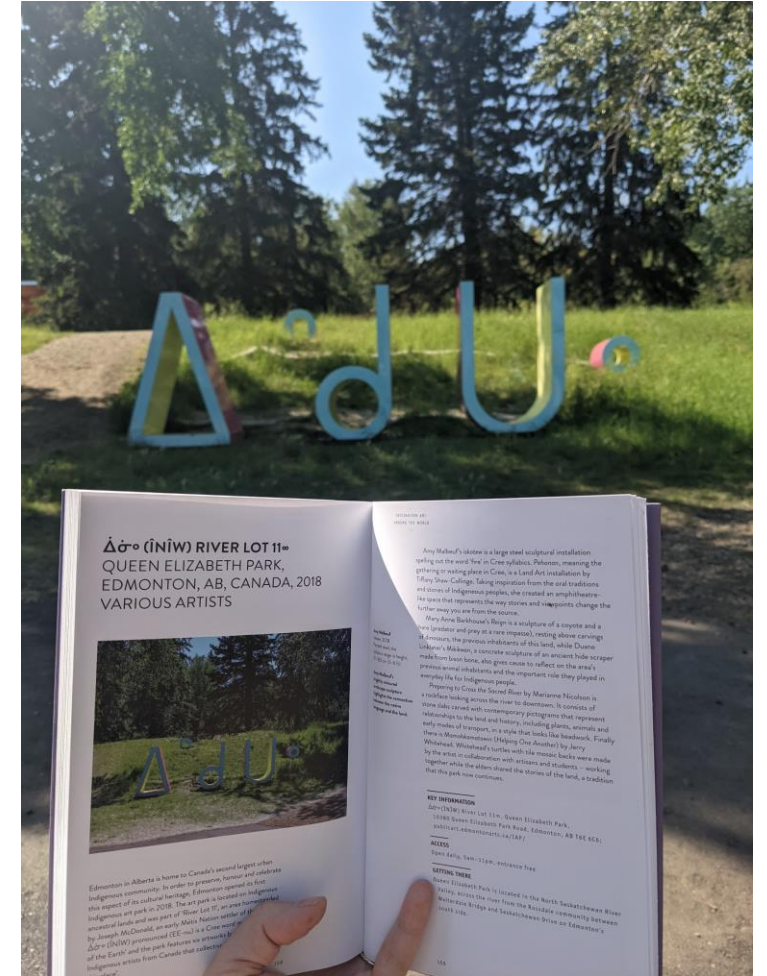

- Shared goals
- Curatorial vision
- Collection development, management and care
- Program growth
- Access
- Representation
- Animation

ᐃᓄᓄᓄ (îNÎW) River Lot 11∞

- Relationship-based process
- Curatorially driven
- Community-based advisory committee
- Decoupled funding
- Integrated approach

ᐃᓄᓄᓄ (îNÎW) River Lot 11∞ is the only Canadian public art site featured in Destination Art, an international public art travel guide published by Thames & Hudson

Thank you

