Edmonton Design Committee
Bylaw

Background

CONTEXT

- The proposed bylaw is an important outcome of CR_7736, Edmonton Design Committee Policies and Procedures, which was presented to Urban Planning Committee on February 2, 2021.
- This report identified changes to Edmonton Design Committee (EDC) standards and procedures to ensure the continued efficiency, effectiveness and relevance of the Committee.

Changes to Bylaw

FUNCTION

- The ability to exempt certain projects from EDC review.
- This change allows the Committee to focus its review on projects with high urban design impact.

Changes to Bylaw

SCOPE

- Adding a second Committee member to represent the Alberta Professional Planners Institute.
- Expanding the membership criteria for the academic representative.
- These changes provide the Committee with additional professional insight.

Thank you.
