

Cross Jurisdictional Review of Designated Driver Service Licensing

Municipality	Applicable Bylaw	Regulations/Requirements	Fees
Edmonton	Business Licence Bylaw, Bylaw 20002	Business licence for the business/company	$255 first year $230 renewal
Calgary	None - Designated driver services are not licensed under any bylaw	Registration with the City to obtain a business ID	None
Toronto	None - Designated driver services are not licensed under any bylaw	No regulatory requirements for designated driver businesses	None
Ottawa	Vehicle for Hire Bylaw No 2016-272 applies to auxiliary services (such as services where the driver provides personal chauffeur services through which the passenger is conveyed in his or her own vehicle).	Company/dispatch licence  Provincial driver's licence, annual acceptable statement of driving record and annual acceptable police record check for drivers are required to be made available for inspection by the Chief Licence Inspector.	$941 annually (dispatch licence)
Grande Prairie	Vehicle for Hire Bylaw C-1394	Dispatch licence (for the business/company);  Chauffeur licence (for the drivers);  Designated Driver has to maintain an agreement with a Licensed Designated Driving Service;  Prior to any service, the designated driver shall ensure that the vehicle has registration, insurance and that the number of passengers to be transported does not exceed the number of available seat belts;	$210 annually (dispatch licence);  $105 annually (chauffeur licence).

		Additionally, the designated driver shall secure the registered motor vehicle owner's consent to operate the motor vehicle and have an agreement with the registered motor vehicle owner respecting the Designated Driver's fee for operating the motor vehicle; The Designated Driver Support Vehicle is prohibited from conveying passengers with the exceptions of other Designated Drivers; The Designated Driver will have proof of Commercial insurance for the support (business) vehicle and commercial general liability insurance for the company of no less than $1,000,000 per accident or occurrence.
--	--	--	--