Amendment to Bylaw 15683 - Edmonton Combative Sports Commission Bylaw

---

Purpose

The Edmonton Combative Sports Commission Bylaw establishes the terms of reference, powers and duties of the Commission, and the position of the Executive Director. Bylaw 18351 amends the Edmonton Combative Sports Commission Bylaw to lift the temporary restrictions put in place in December 2017.

Readings

Bylaw 18351 is ready for three readings.

Position of Administration

Administration supports this Bylaw.

Previous Council/Committee Action

At the February 21, 2018, Community and Public Services Committee meeting, Bylaw 18351 was forwarded to City Council for the appropriate readings.

At the January 17, 2018, Community and Public Services Committee meeting, the following motion was passed:

That Administration:

2. Work with the Edmonton Combative Sport Commission and the affected industry stakeholders to bring a report to the February 21, 2018, Community and Public Services Committee, on progress to implement priority safety recommendations contained in Attachment 1 of the January 17, 2018, Citizen Services report CR_5450.
3. Bring draft bylaw amendments required to lift the moratorium effective February 28, 2018, subject to satisfactory progress of the recommendations.

Report

Bylaw 18351 removes the temporary restriction that prohibited the issuance of licences and permits for combative sports events. If passed, the Executive Director may consider applications for future events and, if all requirements are met, issue licences and permits to allow events to proceed.
