

City of Edmonton Natural Area Systems Planning Awards

The City has an award-winning history of innovative ecological network planning and monitoring. Examples from the past 10 years include:

- Natural Heritage Conservation Award
  - Issued by Communities in Bloom · September 2019
  - Communities in Bloom Heritage award for Edmonton's Biodiversity Program
- Alberta Emerald Foundation Award, Government Institution
  - Issued by Alberta Emerald Foundation · June 2019
  - Award Title: Natural Asset Mapping: A strong tool for effective local and regional conservation planning, protection and stewardship
- CAMA Willis Award for Innovation
  - Issued by Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators (CAMA) · May 2019
  - Award Title: Natural Asset Mapping: A strong tool for effective local and regional conservation planning, protection and stewardship
- CIP Award for Planning Excellence
  - Issued by Canadian Institute of Planners (CIP) · 2018
  - Award Title: Breathe: Edmonton's Green Network Strategy
- National Award: Planning and Analysis
  - Issued by Canadian Society of Landscape Architects · 2018
  - Award Title: Breathe: Edmonton's Green Network Strategy
- Alberta Emerald Foundation Award, Government Institution
  - Issued by Alberta Emerald Foundation · June 2015
  - Award Title: Designing for wildlife passage in an increasingly fragmented world
- CAMA Environment AwardCAMA Environment Award
  - Issued by Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators (CAMA) · June 2015
  - Award Title: Designing for wildlife passage in an increasingly fragmented world
- Alberta Emerald Foundation Award, Government Institution
  - Issued by Alberta Emerald Foundation · June 2012
  - Award Title: A Decade of Leadership to Pioneer New Approaches to Conserve urban Biodiversity