

Edmonton's Strategic Planning Framework

The Strategic Planning Framework (SPF) is the collection of plans and processes that guide how the City works to enable a better life for all Edmontonians.

Through an extensive engagement process called Vision 2050 conducted in 2018, individuals, groups, and organizations provided an enhanced understanding on what matters most to Edmontonians. ConnectEdmonton was essentially built by Edmontonians for Edmonton and guides Administration's work.