Re: Sole Provider

This letter is to confirm that Computronix, headquartered in Edmonton AB, is the sole creator, owner and provider of the POSSE Work Management Platform. No other vendor or entity is authorized or licensed to sell or distribute the software. We affirm that, as the POSSE Platform is solely created, owned and provided by Computronix, Computronix is also the sole vendor for the support and maintenance of the POSSE Platform.

Please do not hesitate to contact the Computronix Account Manager for Edmonton if you have any further questions.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jim den Otter', written over a horizontal line.
