

Metrics, Targets, and Outcomes

Metrics	Targets	Outcomes
As of 2015, 3662 ha of the City's protected natural areas are within the North Saskatchewan River Valley and Ravine System.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be determined through development of a park master plan, pending Council approval. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parks, green spaces, natural areas, and the river valley are protected.
As of 2017, 94% of the population has walkable access to at least one open space (within 400 metres, or a 5-10 minute walk).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be determined through development of a park master plan, pending Council approval. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New trails added to the City's trail network. Parks, green spaces, natural areas, and the river valley are available and accessible.
As of 2017, current amount of publicly accessible open space in the central core is 7.0 ha per 1,000 residents.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All concepts create high quality open space: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Concept 1: 10.1 ha of open space including naturalized park, reforestation, ornamental plants, and constructed wetlands around creek bed. Concept 2: 9.1 ha of open space including naturalized park, reforestation, ornamental plants, and constructed wetlands around creek bed. Concept 3: 11.1 ha of open space including naturalized park, reforestation area, plaza space, and constructed wetlands around creek bed. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The inventory of open space in central Edmonton is expanded.