Ward Boundary Review Report

Post 2021 Election Report to City Council

January 2023

Criteria Used for Post-2021 Edmonton Election Ward Boundary Review

Population vs. Number of Electors

- +/- 25% from the optimum to ensure equality across Wards

Future Growth

- Ward Boundaries established to withstand three municipal elections

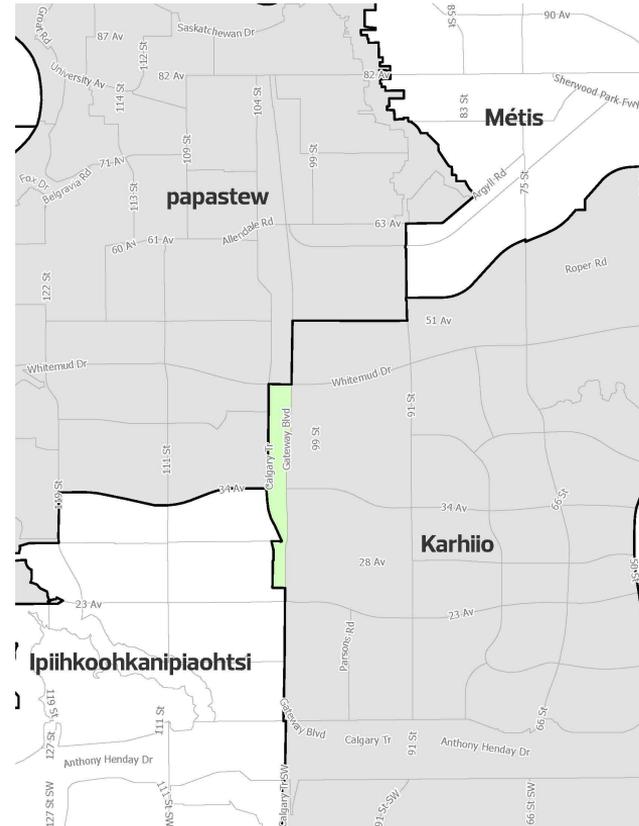

Lessons Learned from the 2021 Edmonton Election

Better alignment between municipal and school division Ward boundaries would:

- improve the voting process
- reduce the number of ballot styles

Proposed Boundary Adjustment: Calgary Trail South Neighbourhood from Ward Karhiio to Ward papastew

- No impact on eligible electors
- Minimal impact on population (11 residents)
- Involves small parcel of non-residential land (0.65km²)

Next Steps

- First reading of Bylaw 20304
- Two week advertising period, followed by a 60-day petition window
- Second and Third readings of Bylaw 20304
- Amended Ward boundaries come into effect on Election Day of the 2025 Edmonton Election (Monday, October 20 2025)
