

City Related Entities

The two tables below list City-related entities and identify whether or not the City is able to alter the budgets of those entities.

The City Can Alter Budgets

Entity Type	Entity Name	Notes
Committees of Council	Accessibility Advisory Committee Anti-Racism Advisory Committee City of Edmonton Youth Council Community Services Advisory Board Edmonton Combative Sports Commission Edmonton Design Committee Edmonton Historical Board Edmonton Salutes Edmonton Transit System Advisory Board Energy Transition Climate Resilience Committee Naming Committee Women’s Advocacy Voice of Edmonton Committee	For Committees of Council, their mandate and budget are set exclusively by City Council, who retains the authority to alter the budget at any time.
Tribunals	Assessment Review Board Community Standards and Licence Appeal Committee Subdivision and Development Appeal Board	For the tribunals, provided they are given sufficient funding to perform their legislatively required services, Council can adjust their budgets.
Other	Business Improvement Area Boards Edmonton Police Commission Edmonton Public Library Board	For the Police Commission, Council's role is limited to setting the total amount of funding to be provided, which must be sufficient to provide adequate and effective policing services for the City. Both the Library Board and BIAs must submit their annual budgets for Council approval. Once approved, Council must transfer the approved amount but can adjust budgets in future years.

The City Cannot Alter Budgets

Entity Type	Entity Name	Notes
Corporations (Wholly City Owned)	2492369 Canada Corp Edmonton Unlimited Epcor Utilities Inc. Explore Edmonton Fort Edmonton Management Company (FEMCO) The City of Edmonton Non-Profit Housing Corporation (does business as (dba) Home Ed)	Corporate law generally holds that the creation and approval of budgets is an operational matter that falls outside of the authority of a shareholder/member. The governing documents of these corporations confirm that this budgeting power is reserved for the boards. The City cannot exert direct control over the budgets of most corporations, even if the City is the sole or partial owner (shareholder/member) of the corporation. Although a corporation's budget may be brought before the shareholder/member at an annual general meeting, it is still the Board of Directors that is responsible for actually approving the budget.
Corporations (Partly City Owned)	Alberta's Industrial Heartland Association Edmonton Global Edmonton Metropolitan Transit Service Commission River Valley Alliance
Corporations (Statutory Entities)	Capital Region Housing Foundation (dba Civida) Edmonton Metropolitan Region Board Edmonton Regional Airports Authority GEF Seniors Housing
Corporations (Independent)	Edmonton Arts Council Edmonton Health City Edmonton Screen Industries Office Society REACH Edmonton Council	For corporations where the City is not an owner (shareholder or member), we do not have any method to direct the Board. The corporation is independent from the City.