Urban Planning Committee
March 21, 2023

Omnibus Amendment to Business Licence Bylaw 20002 (Bylaw 20367):

1. Reducing the amount of personal information businesses must collect for adult service workers
2. Updating business licence category descriptions
3. Extending Administration's discretionary powers to waive minimum holding requirements for goods sold on consignment
4. Enhancing and clarifying compliance tools and fines relating to the automatic suspension and business licence review provisions
5. Minor corrections for clarity and consistency

Designated Driver Service Updates (Bylaw 20374):

- New Designated Driver Service business licence category
- Businesses must obtain a police information check from anyone employed, or being considered for employment as a designated driver
- Businesses cannot employ drivers with convictions for violent or sexual crimes, trafficking, fraud, or unlawful operation of a motor vehicle within the previous 10 years
- Businesses must obtain updated police information checks every six months from drivers with current charges
