Here is a brief public introduction as provided by the new appointees:

Ilara Stefaniuk-Gaudet	Accessibility Advisory Committee
Ilara Stefaniuk-Gaudet is a passionate artist who is committed to creating positive change in the world. They have been a community builder at heart their entire life and in a professional capacity for nearly twenty years. Currently working as Director of Religious Education at Westwood Unitarian Congregation, Ilara takes great pride in their ability to adapt to a changing world and offer support where support is needed. Born with severe kidney disease, Ilara has been a member of the disability community their entire life in many capacities. Their observations of the injustices experienced by folx with disabilities was their first introduction into seeing the need for advocacy. With time, they have gained the deeply held awareness that justice work must be intersectional work. It is this awareness and their creative ability to think out of the box that Ilara is most excited to contribute to the Accessibility Advisory Committee.

Marcy Vautour	Accessibility Advisory Committee
Marcy Vautour is a resident of Edmonton, AB. She has more than a decade of experience in advocacy, nonprofits, and housing. She has been a powerful voice for those with disabilities. She has a strong interest in accessibility stemming from her own experiences as a person who has been hard of hearing since birth. Marcy is also the Founder and CEO of Healthy Healing Coaches that gives a voice to the voiceless. They provide coaching to those with a disability that have been bullied. Marcy Vautour is on the Board of Directors for CHHA - Edmonton (Canadian Hard of Hearing Association) and she is a stride advocate for John Humphrey Centre for Peace &amp; Human Rights. She is a Director (Sponsorship) for Women in Bloom. She is also a motivational speaker and speaks at conferences and online on numerous topics facing people with disabilities, including, employment, finding your voice, accessibility, and homelessness. Marcy is a Pomeranian enthusiast, and a novice ukulele player.
