

BACKGROUND

Brinton and Jennifer McLaughlin

- 9121 143 Street
- Parkview homeowners for the past 6 years
- Grovenor homeowners for 14 years prior to moving to Parkview
- Two sons aged 13 and 19

We are generally supportive of infill development

Opposed to this development

The City is not listening to its taxpayers

The administration report skews the desirability of the proposed development

FEEDBACK SUMMARY

11 opposed; 2 in support

Why is the administration not listening to its citizens?

Feedback Summary

This section summarizes the main themes collected.

Number of responses in response to mailed notice of proposed land use changes:

In Support: 0

In Opposition: 8

Mixed: 0

Number of responses online through Engaged Edmonton

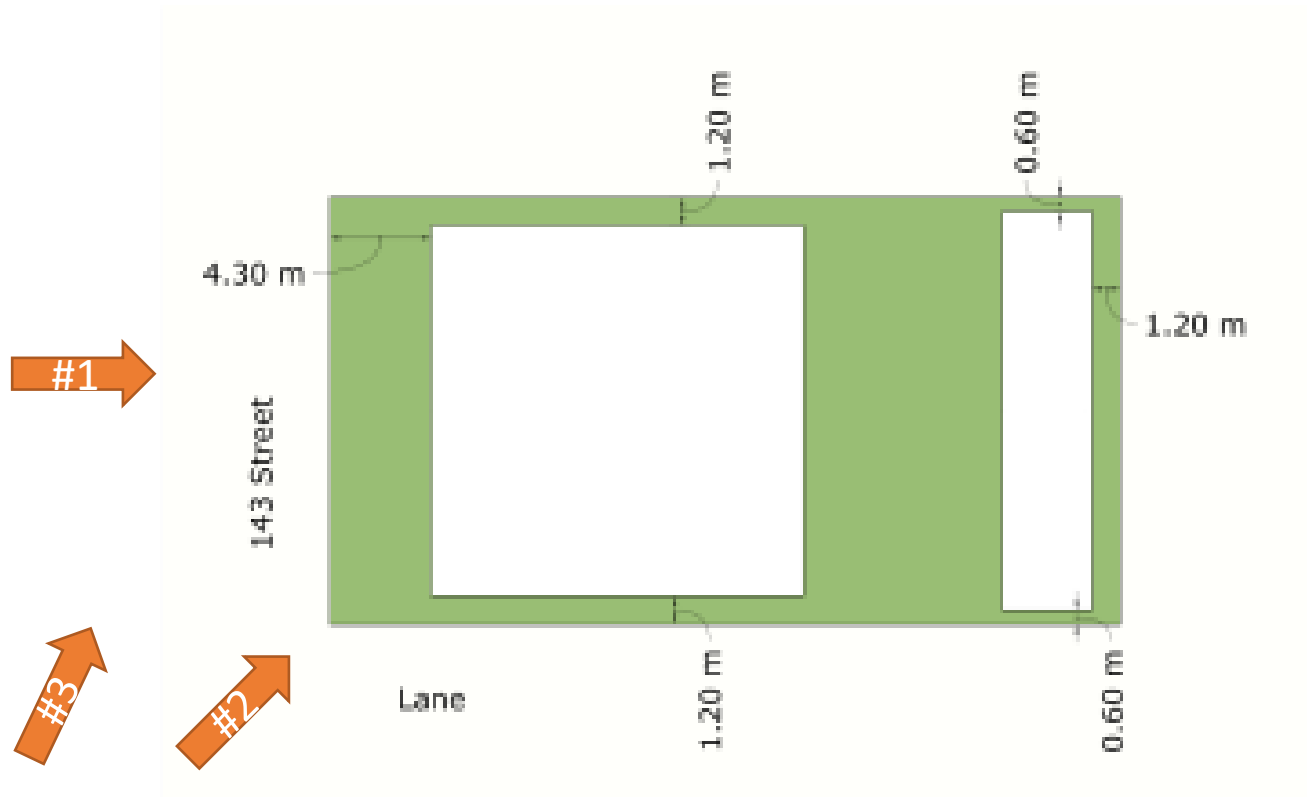

In Support: 2

In Opposition: 3

Mixed: 0

SITE PHOTOS ARE OF THE SITE, NOT FROM THE SITE

It's important to consider the desirability of the housing from the owner's perspective

#1

View of the site looking east from 143 Street NW

#2

View of the site looking northwest for the intersection of the rear and flanking lane

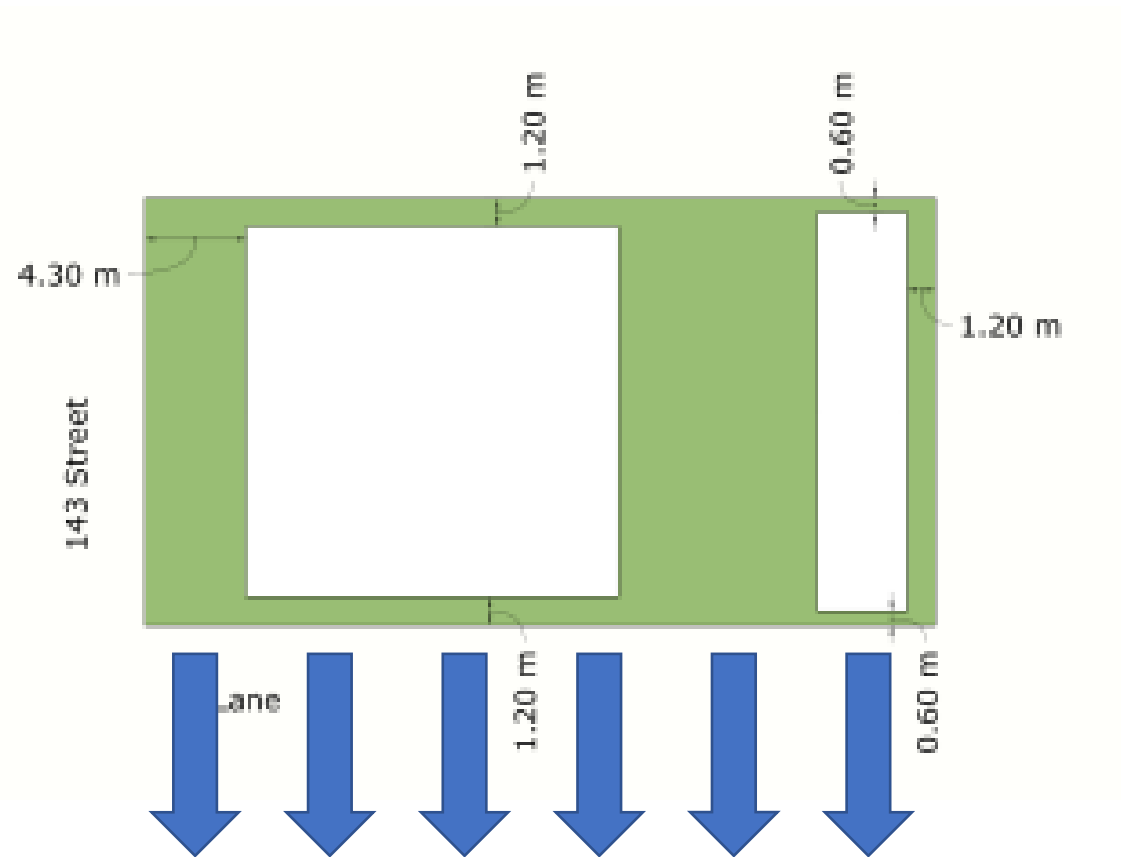

#3

View of the crosswalk (east-west) across 143 Street NW. The crosswalk aligns with the subject site's northern property line.

SITE PHOTOS ARE OF THE SITE, NOT FROM THE SITE

It's important to consider the desirability of the housing from the owner's perspective

The following 6 slides show what the view would like from the front windows of the proposed housing, taken from the approximate locations indicated above

