

Office of the City Clerk

Edmonton

Bylaw 20497 - Amendments to Bylaw 14040 Edmonton Police Commission

Office of the City Clerk
city.clerk@edmonton.ca
edmonton.ca/meetings

Background

- December 15, 2022: Police Amendment Act, 2022 received Royal Assent.
- March 29, 2023, amendments to Section 28, Commissions proclaimed.
  - The Minister may now make appointments to the Edmonton Police Commission.
- Changes:
  - A limit to the number of Council-appointed members.
  - The addition of Minister-appointed members.

Police Act Changes - Minister-Appointed Members

- Council may appoint up to 9 members.
- If Council appoints 9, the Minister may appoint up to 3, for a total of 12. The Minister may appoint more than 3; total number cannot exceed 15.
  - Terms of up to 3 years.
  - Only be revoked by the Minister.

Composition

	Current composition	Dec 31, 2023
Council-appointed members	9 public 2 Council	9 public/Council
Minister-appointed members	3	3

Routing

- Membership-related Council reports are routed depending on where recommendations are made.
- For the Edmonton Police Commission, City Council is the appointment body.

---

Questions.