

Side-by-Side Comparison

SCHEDULE 1 - RATES			SCHEDULE 1 - RATES		COMMENTS
TABLE 1 - RESIDENTIAL WASTE UTILITY RATES			TABLE 1 - RESIDENTIAL WASTE UTILITY RATES
Residential Waste Collection Service	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to December 31, 2023)	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to December 31, 2024)	Residential Waste Collection Service	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to December 31, 2024)
Curbside (120L Garbage Cart)	$43.75	$44.19	Curbside (120L Garbage Cart)	$44.19
Curbside (240L Garbage Cart)	$48.75	$49.19	Curbside (240L Garbage Cart)	$49.19
Curbside (360L Garbage Cart)	$58.75	$59.19	Curbside (360L Garbage Cart)	$59.19
			Communal Collection	$31.25
			Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 1)	$49.19

Communal Collection	$30.97	$31.25	Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 2)	$45.60
Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 1)	$45.20	$49.19	Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1	$34.84
Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 2)	$41.64	$45.60	Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 2	$38.43
			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 3	$42.02
			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 4	$45.60
			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 5	$49.19
MULTI-UNIT TRANSITION RATE Eligibility Criteria The City Manager may charge the Residential Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) in Table 1 in each month of the calendar year indicated therein to an owner of residential premises if the following criteria are satisfied:			MULTI-UNIT TRANSITION RATE 1 and RATE 2 Eligibility Criteria Homes that were first charged a Multi-Unit Transition Rate in 2020 are eligible to be charged Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1 until December 31, 2023.		This category of transition rates preexists in Bylaw 20363. Amendments to this section are intended to clarify eligibility criteria and to clearly state the

(a) As of the date on which Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed, the owner's home must have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) received curbside collection services exclusively; (ii) paid the lower multi-family monthly rate notwithstanding the home received curbside collection services; (iii) did not receive bin collection services; and, (b) Beginning on the day that Waste Services Bylaw 18590 came into effect, and at all times during which the Residential Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) is included as a Type of Service in Table 1 under this Bylaw: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the owner must continuously occupy the same home that received curbside collection pursuant to Waste Services Bylaw 17555; 	Homes that were first charged Multi-Unit Transition Rate in 2021 are eligible to be charged Multi-Unit Transition Rate 2 until December 31, 2024. The City Manager may charge the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1) or the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate 2) in Table 1 in each month of the calendar year indicated therein to a home owner if the following criteria are satisfied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) As of the date on which Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed, the owner's home must have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) received curbside collection services exclusively; (ii) paid the lower multi-family monthly rate notwithstanding that the home received curbside collection services; and, (iii) not receive bin collection services; and,	end date for this transitional rate program.
---	---	---

(ii) the utility account holder must be the same person who paid the Rate for the home on the date Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed; and, (iii) the utility account holder must at all times continue to be the same person paying the Rate for the home under the now repealed Waste Services Bylaw 18590 and under this Waste Services Bylaw 20363.	(b) Beginning on the day that Waste Services Bylaw 18590 came into effect, and at all times during which the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) is included as a Type of Service in Table 1 under this Bylaw 20363: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the owner must continuously occupy the same home that received curbside collection pursuant to Waste Services Bylaw 17555; (ii) the utility account holder must be the same person who paid the Rate for the home on the date Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed; (iii) the utility account holder must at all times continue to be the same person paying the Rate for the home under the now repealed Waste Services Bylaw 18590 and under this Waste Services Bylaw 20363; and, (iv) the maximum duration a home that otherwise would be eligible for either Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1
--	--	--

	or 2 shall be until December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2024 respectively.
	CURBSIDE SERVICE TRANSITION RATES The Curbside Service Transition Rate - Year 1/2/3/4/5 in Table 1 above will be charged to the limited class of home owners that are eligible in accordance with the foregoing definitions and eligibility criteria: Definitions (a) “Curbside Service Transition Rate” means any one or all of the following line items in Table 1 above as the context so requires: (i) Curbside Transition Rate Year 1, (ii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 2, (iii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 3, (iv) Curbside Transition Rate Year 4, (v) Curbside Transition Rate Year 5. (b) “Ineligible” means a home that does not qualify to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate due to any one or more of	New type of transitional rate program added to Bylaw 20363. Eligible home owners and utility account holders will move to the curbside collection rate over a five-year period, moving from Year 1 to Year 5, when rate parity is reached. Transitional rates will take effect for eligible home owners or utility account holders the month after their service changes to

	the criteria described under the heading below “Ineligibility Criteria”. Eligibility Criteria and Implementation (a) Homes that received communal collection services for at least two consecutive years that are subsequently designated to change to curbside collection services are eligible to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate over a maximum 59 month period. (b) When the change in service occurs, the home owner will be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1 the next calendar month after the change through until December 31 in that calendar year for a maximum 11 month period. (c) Each subsequent calendar year between January 1 through December 31 after the first period of time the Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1, the home owner will be charged the next incremental yearly Curbside Service Transition Rate described in Table 1 above.	curbside collection. Transitional rates are voided if the home owner or utility account holder changes or requests alternative collection programming or containers, like a change in cart size or requesting an additional set of carts for secondary suites.
--	---	--

	Ineligibility Criteria for Curbside Service Transition Rates A home will immediately become ineligible and will not be charged a Curbside Service Transition Rate if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) The owner named as the utility account holder for the home is changed at any time after the City gives notice that collection services at the home will change from communal collection to curbside collection; (ii) The home owner requests and is approved to receive a different size of cart after carts have been issued to the home following the change in collection service from communal collection to curbside collection; or, (iii) The home owner chooses to participate in any alternate collection program other than the assisted waste program.
--	---	--