Side-by-Side Comparison

SCHEDULE 1 - RATES		SCHEDULE 1 - RATES		COMMENTS
TABLE 1 - RESIDENTIAL WASTE UTILITY RATES		TABLE 1 - RESIDENTIAL WASTE UTILITY RATES		Remove and replace 2023 waste utility rates in Table 1 to add a new
Residential Waste Collection Service	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to	Residential Waste Collection Service	Monthly Waste Utility Rate (January 1 to December 31, 2024)	category of transition rates for homes changed from communal collection to curbside collection
	December 31, 2023)	December 31, 2024)	Curbside (120L Garbage Cart)	$44.19
Curbside (120L Garbage Cart)	$43.75	$44.19	Curbside (240L Garbage Cart)	$49.19	service. Transition Rates for years 1 - 5 for Curbside (240L	$48.75	$49.19	Curbside (360L Garbage Cart)	$59.19	the new transition rate program added to Table 1.
Garbage Cart)			Communal Collection	$31.25
Curbside (360L Garbage Cart)	$58.75	$59.19	Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 1)	$49.19

Communal Collection	$30.97	$31.25	Curbside (Multi-unit Transition Rate 2)	$45.60
Curbside (Multi-unit	$45.20	$49.19	Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1	$34.84
Transition Rate 1)			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 2	$38.43
Curbside (Multi-unit Transition	$41.64	$45.60	Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 3	$42.02
Rate 2)			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 4	$45.60
			Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 5	$49.19
MULTI-UNIT TRANSITION RATE		MULTI-UNIT TRANSITION RATE 1 and RATE 2		This category of transition rates preexists in Bylaw 20363.
The City Manager may charge the Residential Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) in Table 1 in each month of the calendar year indicated therein to an owner of residential premises if the following criteria are satisfied:		Eligibility Criteria Homes that were first charged a Multi-Unit Transition Rate in 2020 are eligible to be charged Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1 until December 31, 2023.		Amendments to this section are intended to clarify eligibility criteria and to clearly state the

 (a) As of the date on which Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed, the owner's home must have: (i) received curbside collection services exclusively; (ii) paid the lower multi-family monthly rate notwithstanding the home received curbside collection services; (iii) did not receive bin collection services; and, (b) Beginning on the day that Waste Services Bylaw 18590 came into effect, and at all times during which the Residential Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) is included as a Type of Service in Table 1 under this Bylaw: (i) the owner must continuously 	Transition Rate in 2021 are eligible to be charged Multi-Unit Transition Rate 2 until December 31, 2024. The City Manager may charge the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1) or the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate 2) in Table 1 in each month of the calendar year indicated therein to a home owner if the following criteria are satisfied: (a) As of the date on which Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed, the owner's home must have: (i) received curbside collection services exclusively; (ii) paid the lower multi-family monthly rate notwithstanding that	transitional rate program.
(i) the owner must continuously	the home received curbside
occupy the same home that received curbside collection	collection services; and, (iii) not receive bin collection
pursuant to Waste Services Bylaw 17555;	services;
	and,

be the same person who paid the Rate for the home on the date Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed; and, (iii) the utility account holder must at all times continue to be the same person paying the Rate for the home under the now repealed Waste Services Bylaw 18590 and under this Waste Services Bylaw 20363.	Services Bylaw 18590 came into effect, and at all times during which the Curbside (Multi-Unit Transition Rate) is included as a Type of Service in Table 1 under this Bylaw 20363: (i) the owner must continuously occupy the same home that received curbside collection pursuant to Waste Services Bylaw 17555; (ii) the utility account holder must be the same person who paid the Rate for the home on the date Waste Services Bylaw 17555 was repealed; (iii) the utility account holder must at all times continue to be the same person paying the Rate for the home under the now repealed Waste Services Bylaw 18590 and under this Waste Services Bylaw 20363; and, (iv) the maximum duration a home that otherwise would be eligible for either Multi-Unit Transition Rate 1 or 2 shall be until December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2024 respectively.
--	--

Tespectively. CURBSIDE SERVICE TRANSITION RATES The Curbside Service Transition Rate - Year 1/2/3/4/5 in Table 1 above will be charged to the limited class of home owners that are eligible in accordance with the foregoing definitions and eligibility criteria: Definitions (a) "Curbside Service Transition Rate" means any one or all of the following line items in Table 1 above as the context so requires: (i) Curbside Transition Rate Year 1, (ii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 2, (iii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 3, (iv) Curbside Transition Rate Year 4, (v) Curbside Transition Rate Year 5. (b) "Ineligible" means a home that does not	New type of transitional rate program added to Bylaw 20363. Eligible home owners and utility account holders will move to the curbside collection rate over a five-year period, moving from Year 1 to Year 5, when rate parity is reached. Transitional rates will take effect for eligible home owners or utility account qualify to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate due to any one or more of	holders the month after their service changes to the criteria described under the head below "Ineligibility Criteria". Eligibility Criteria and Implementation (a) Homes that received communal coll services for at least two consecutive that are subsequently designated to a to curbside collection services are el to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate over a maximum 59 period. (b) When the change in service occurs, a home owner will be charged the Curbside the Curbside the Curbside the Curbside the Curbside collection reprice occurs, a maximum 11 be charged the Curbside the charge three and the change that calendar worth after the change three until December 31 in that calendar y a maximum 11 month period. (c) Each subsequent calendar year betw January 1 through December 31 after first period of time the Curbside Ser Transition Rate Year 1, the home ow will be charged the next incremental Curbside Service Transition Rate de in Table 1 above. 	collection. Transitional rates are voided if the home owner or utility account holder changes or requests alternative collection month he bside ext ugh ear for requests alternative collection programming or containers, like a change in cart size or secondary suites. een r the vice ner yearly

--	---

Ineligibility Criteria for Curbside Southern Curbside Southern Curbside Southern States	ervice
A home will immediately become is will not be charged a Curbside Serv Rate if:	-
 (i) The owner named as account holder for the changed at any time gives notice that coll at the home will changed at the home will ch	he home is after the City lection services nge from
 (ii) The home owner requirements approved to receive a of cart after carts have to the home following collection service from the following collection service	a different size we been issued ng the change in om communal collection to curbsid (iii) The home owner cho participate in any alt collection program of assisted waste progra	ooses to ernate other than the