THE CITY OF EDMONTON

BYLAW 17755

PROCEDURES AND COMMITTEES BYLAW AMENDMENT No. 33

Edmonton City Council enacts:

- 1 Bylaw 12300, Procedures and Committees Bylaw, is amended by this bylaw.
- 2 Schedule C, section 2 is deleted and replaced with:
 - 2 A member of the public will be permitted to participate in a Standing Committee meeting by communication facility, except statutory hearings conducted by Standing Committee, if:
 - (a) the item that the person wishes to speak to via communication facility will be discussed in public;
 - (b) the person provides notice of their request to participate via communication facility in accordance with section 4 at least two business days prior to the start of the meeting;
 - (c) the person complies with any requests by the City Manager to test the requested communication facility connection prior to the start of the meeting;

- (d) the City Manager determines that the request to participate by communication facility is operationally feasible; and
- (e) the person agrees to pay any costs of participating by communication facility, if requested by the City Manager.

3 Schedule C, section 3 is deleted.

4 Schedule C, section 4, is deleted and replaced with:

- 4 A person, including a Member of Council, who wants to participate via communication facility as permitted in this Schedule must:
- (a) if the person is a Member of Council, notify the Mayor, Chair of the applicable Standing Committee, and the City Manager in writing that he or she intends to participate via communication facility for specific item(s) or the entire meeting;
 - (b) if the person is not a Member of Council, provide a written request to participate by communication facility for a specific item to the City Manager; and
 - (c) advise the City Manager of the telephone number at which the person can be contacted when the requested item is ready to be heard by Council or Standing Committee or the meeting begins.
