

Naming Committee (NC) | 2024 Work Plan

Mandate of Naming Committee (NC)

The mandate of the Committee is to name the City's development areas, parks, municipal facilities, roads, honorary roads, and wards, in accordance with, and subject to any exemptions or restrictions imposed by City Policy.

NC Goals for 2024

The Naming Committee has listed two on-going renamings which align with its Naming Policy principles of enhancing partnerships with Indigenous communities, celebrating Indigenous histories, and honouring Edmonton's diverse communities. The Committee then listed the 8 recommendations that were shared and presented to Council's Urban Planning Committee on October 11, 2023. These recommendations align with its Policy's principles, City Plan and the City's Indigenous framework.

1. Support and promote the new neighbourhood name of Wîhkwêntôwin
2. Government Centre LRT Station renaming
3. Complete the City of Edmonton Place Name Dataset and publish the data on the City of Edmonton's Open Data Portal
4. Review all the names once the Names dataset is complete for metadata accuracy and appropriateness
5. Develop a culturally-sensitive, community-involved re-naming process
6. Develop a mechanism to offer ongoing community engagement tied to outreach and education
7. Conduct an assessment to formally identify barriers to citizens' access to the naming process
8. Severing the relationship between the Naming Policy C509C and the Facility Name Sale Policy
9. Develop an Indigenous naming process
10. Review the structure of the Names Reserve List
