

Urban Planning and Economy

Edmonton

Bylaw 20765 Omnibus
Amendment to Business Licence
Bylaw 20002 - Amendment #3

Lyla Peter, Director, Development Approvals and Inspections
edmonton.ca/businesslicences

Item 7.4 Urban Planning Committee - April 9, 2024

Omnibus Amendment to Business Licence Bylaw 20002 (Bylaw 20765)

Minor Amendments

Cannabis Retail

- Removing the restriction on operating hours, allowing retailers to defer to Alberta Gaming, Liquor, and Cannabis (AGLC) for operating hours.

Conditions on Premise

- Licensees with imposed conditions on their business licence will be required to keep a physical, printed copy of the detailed conditions on the premises at all times and to make it available to an enforcement officer upon request.

Administrative Amendments

- Clarify throughout the Bylaw whether specified timelines are calendar days or business days.
- Delete Schedule D - Transitional Licences.

Omnibus Amendment to Business Licence Bylaw 20002 (Bylaw 20765)

Name Update for Adult Services Category

Current	Proposed
Exotic Entertainer	Erotic Entertainer
Exotic Entertainment Venue	Erotic Entertainment Venue
Exotic Entertainment Agency	Erotic Entertainment Agency

Omnibus Amendment to Business Licence Bylaw 20002 (Bylaw 20765)

Information Sharing with Massage Therapy Associations

- Authorize the City under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Alberta) to indirectly collect member information from the associations where it is directly necessary for administration and maintenance of the licences.

Questions and Thank You

Lyla Peter, Director, Development Approvals and Inspections
edmonton.ca/businesslicences

Edmonton