

Allocation of Compliance and Enforcement Resources

The following represents the approximate allocation of Administration’s in-scope compliance and enforcement resources to residential development complaints as of December 2023. FTE allocations below are estimated, as team members undertake a variety of work within their respective lines of business (e.g. industrial or commercial property complaints, complaints regarding residential properties but unrelated to construction or redevelopment). Additional data and reporting capabilities will be explored through the upcoming centralized operating model.
