

Federation of Canadian Municipalities Committees - Councillor Applicants

That the City of Edmonton nomination of Councillors as listed in the table below to serve on Federation of Canadian Municipalities standing committees and caucus for the 2024-2025 term, to the municipal election October 20, 2025, be approved and that the costs associated with attendance at the standing committee and caucus meetings from the Councillors' Common Travel and Conference Budget for an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each Councillor, be approved.

FCM Standing Committees*	Description of Committee (from FCM https://fcm.ca/en/about-fcm/board-directors/governance/standing-committees-and-forums)	Councillor Applicant (1 per cell)	Notes
Standing Committee on Anti-Racism, Equity, and Inclusion	Drives board capacity building on anti-racism and equity issues such as gender, accessibility, and anti-Indigeniety, establishes a forum to discuss promising municipal practices nationally, highlights opportunities to develop more equitable governance models and practices, and collaborates with FCM's policy committees to bring forward federal advocacy recommendations grounded in ARE principles and considerations.		Councillor Paquette was a member for the 2023-2024 term
Standing Committee on Community Safety and Crime Prevention	Focuses on policing, crime prevention, community corrections, emergency preparedness and management.		Councillor Paquette was a member for the 2023-2024 term
Standing Committee on Environmental Issues and Sustainable Development	Focuses on policies and programs related to green economy, climate change adaptation, clean air, water, waste, wastewater, brownfields, toxic substances (including pesticides), energy, invasive species and green

FCM Standing Committees*	Description of Committee (from FCM https://fcm.ca/en/about-fcm/board-directors/governance/standing-committees-and-forums)	Councillor Applicant (1 per cell)	Notes
	infrastructure.
Standing Committee on Municipal Finance, Infrastructure and Transportation	Focuses on policies and programs related to infrastructure, public transit, mobility, transportation, rail safety, telecommunications, finance and procurement, Canada Post, international trade and municipal finance and autonomy.
Standing Committee on Social Economic Development	Focuses on housing and homelessness, cultural and community infrastructure, immigration and municipal-Aboriginal relations, and aging infrastructure.
FCM Forum/Caucus*	Description of Forum/Caucus (from FCM https://fcm.ca/en/about-fcm/board-directors/governance/standing-committees-and-forums)	Councillor Applicants	Notes
Prairies and Territories Caucus	Provides a forum for discussion of regional interests as identified by members of the caucus and serves as a consultative forum for governance issues being recommended to the Federation of Canadian Municipalities Board of Directors. FCM has five regional caucuses (British Columbia, Prairies and Territories, Ontario, Quebec, and Atlantic).		All board and non-board members are automatically members of their respective caucus.

Forums and caucuses not applicable to the City of Edmonton have not been included in the table.*