- Amend Policy C618B Councillors' Budget and Expenses Policy to allow the Manager, Councillors' Office Liaison Team to approve common event infrastructure expenses to a specified limit to add to a common inventory.

Executive Summary

The recommended amendments to this policy are the result of discussions and a follow up to the Budget Review Task Force: Final Report presented to Council on July 4, 2023, a further conversation with Committee on September 15, 2023 as well as direction received at the May 7, 2024 Committee meeting.

REPORT

The current Councillors' Budget and Expenses Policy C618B was passed September 12, 2022 (Attachment 2). This report is recommending that Committee recommend to Council that the new policy be approved as presented in Attachment 1. Attachment 3 includes a redline version of the changes.

Policy C618C will continue to guide the expenditures that support Councillors in performing their diverse roles and to represent their constituents in-line with the original guiding principles. The amendments are intended to address:

1. follow up actions requested by Council Services Committee,
2. modernize processes in-line with corporate procedures, and
3. provide additional clarity on procedures and expenses within the purpose of this policy, specifically:
 - To provide Councillors with the flexibility to allocate resources in the most efficient, effective and economical way to meet their own particular requirements.
 - To achieve economies of scale where practical by pooling resources for the common use of all Councillors.
 - To recognize Councillors' accountability for managing City resources allocated to them.
