

Update on Employment Opportunities for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities

The Abilities@Work Program has been recognized with a number of awards. Several of these awards were a result of members of the disability community nominating and/or selecting the program, signifying the positive response that it has received. Abilities@Work has received the following awards:

- Community Inclusion Award, April 2014: Selection Committee comprised of members of the Alberta Association for Community Living (AACL) Board.
- Mayor's Award, May 2014: Selection Committee comprised of members of the Accessibility Advisory Committee (AAC).
- Persons with Development Disabilities Regional Community Citizenship Award, June 2014: Selection Committee comprised of members of Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) Regional Board.
- Persons with Development Disabilities Provincial Community Citizenship Award, September 2014: Selection Committee comprised of members of Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) Provincial Board.
- City Manager's Award of Excellence, Advancing Corporate Culture, November 2014.
