Detailed Listing

Report Legend: *Trade Agreement Exemption Reason

- A - If the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist because of an absence of competition for technical reasons.
- B - If the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist because of the protection of patents, copyrights, or other exclusive rights.
- C - If the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist because the procurement is for subscriptions to newspapers, magazines, or other periodicals.
- D - If the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist because the requirement is for a work of art.
- E - If the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist in order to ensure compatibility with existing goods, or to maintain specialized goods that must be maintained by the manufacturer of those goods or its representative.
- F - Measures relating to Indigenous peoples.
- G - No Exemption.
- H - Procurements from a non-profit or philanthropic organization.
- I - Procurements from public/government bodies.
- J - When the acquisition is of a confidential or privileged nature and disclosure through an open bidding process could reasonably be expected to compromise government confidentiality, cause economic disruption or be contrary to the public interest (or, in the case of CFTA only, result in a waiver of privilege).
- K - Where an unforeseeable situation of urgency exists and the goods, services or construction could not be obtained in time by means of open procurement procedure.
- L - Procurements of health services and social services
