Rezoning and subdivision will be reviewed on a case by case basis in alignment with The City Plan, the Windermere Area Structure Plan, and the site context. The latest of these developments, Windermere Ridge Estates, is built to an urban and serviced standard unlike Windermere and Westpoint Estates. These earlier residences may choose to connect into future urban service extensions as they become available while maintaining their rural image. Where existing residents support full City services, attempts to provide full servicing should be encouraged as soon as practicable."
