Board	Appointees	Appointment Term
Subdivision and Development Appeal Board Chair	Appointment (1) Ian Wachowicz	May 1, 2015 to April 30, 2016

Below is a brief public introduction as provided by new Appointees:

Catherine Cheng	Greater Edmonton Foundation Board
Catherine has a strong passion for geriatric care and the well-being of senior citizens in our community. She has spent over a decade working to improving the lives of older adults - starting with volunteering at a local seniors home in high school and becoming a personal trainer certified as an older adult specialist. Catherine completed medical school at the University of Ottawa, with a keen interest in geriatric medicine and geriatric psychiatry. She is currently a resident physician working towards a specialization in geriatric psychiatry in Edmonton. In the past, she has conducted research at the Baycrest Rotman Research Institute - a leader in the field of aging - in the area of cognition and driving in older adults. She has held several leadership roles including being the Chair of the National Geriatrics Interest Group for the 2013-2014 term. She is currently head of the Economics subcommittee for the Negotiations Committee within the Professional Association of Resident Physicians of Alberta. Prior to medical school, Catherine completed a bachelor's degree in Business Administration at the Schulich School of Business at York University, with a focus on operations and strategy. Catherine hopes to use her skills and passion in gerontology and business to improve the lives of Edmonton's senior citizens.
Nomagugu Moyo	Greater Edmonton Foundation Board
Nomagugu is currently a manager in the Lois Hole for Women hospital. A registered nurse who is aware of how medical conditions may possess a barrier to accessing housing. She has a strong focus on quality and safety serving on various committees. She recently received nomination for the Alberta Health Services - President's Excellence Award for her work on infection prevention. She is dedicated to community development and has participated in multiple fundraising activities. Nomagugu grew up in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe - with an enthusiastic attitude coupled with resilience, she hopes to make a positive, sustainable contribution to seniors housing in Edmonton.

Ailwin Boulet	Naming Committee
I grew up in Olds and attended the University of Alberta, where I obtained my Bachelor of Education degree. My early teaching years were in small Aboriginal communities in northern Alberta. I then returned to Edmonton to work with youth in the Edmonton Young Offender Centre. For the past twenty years I have been employed by the Edmonton Public School Board. I have taught a variety of subjects, but my passion is Social Studies at the junior high level. I try to bring Canadian and World history to life with stories of real people and the challenges they faced. I have always enjoyed exploring the "who" of history; the choices we make create the communities we live in. I have called Edmonton home for over twenty-five years. I admire Edmonton's strong drive to participate, evidenced in the large numbers of volunteers who bring to life countless organizations and world class events. Over the years I have volunteered with the Royal Alberta Museum, the Edmonton Food Bank and the Works Festival, with most of my volunteer experience being coaching youth. Volunteers are the heart of any activity and Edmonton has no shortage of heart. I enjoy living, working and participating in all that living in Edmonton has to offer.
Cindy Chiasson	Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
Cindy Chiasson is a life-long Edmontonian and specialist in environmental and natural resources law and policy. She has practiced law for nearly three decades, accumulating extensive regulatory and legislative experience in the private, government and non-profit sectors. Cindy is also a long-term volunteer with many organizations, including educational, sports, community, youth and environmental groups, and has served on many non-profit boards and government policy committees. She received the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee medal for her work and volunteer contributions to Alberta.
Rick Hachigian	Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
I have been a resident of the City of Edmonton for the past 40 years. During that time, I was employed by the City of Edmonton from 1976 until 2013 in various capacities. I was a labourer/machine operator for Parks and Recreation from 1976 until 1980. From 1980 thru 2010 I was employed as a full time employee with the Planning Department as a Land Use Control Officer/Development Officer/Development Planner. I retired in 2010 and was fortunate enough to be offered contracts with the Sustainable Development Section of the Planning Department until 2013 in the capacity that I was previously employed.

Anna J. Lund	Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
Born and raised in Edmonton, Anna Lund completed a BA and LLB at the University of Alberta and practiced law at Field Law in Edmonton. In 2010, Anna Lund started graduate studies in law, completing a LLM at the University of California (Berkeley). She is now working towards a PhD from the University of British Columbia. Her research interests include debtor-creditor law and access to justice. She is thrilled to be back in Edmonton where, in addition to her doctoral work, she volunteers at the Edmonton Community Legal Centre and teaches at the University of Alberta in the Faculty of Law.
Melanie McCallum	Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
Melanie was born and raised in Edmonton. After graduating from the University of Alberta with a B.A. in Sociology, Melanie worked in Children’s Aid for the City of Edmonton. Later, she joined the Government of Alberta Department of International and Intergovernmental Relations (IIR). As a Director in International Relations, she worked to advance Alberta’s global interests with governments in various geographic regions, notably the United States. Melanie has had extensive experience in the volunteer sector, serving on various Boards, Councils, and Committees joining others to address the economic, social, cultural, educational and health needs in the City of Edmonton and the Province of Alberta. For example, she has been engaged in the Community League, United Way, Alberta College Affairs, Glenrose Hospital, Junior League of Edmonton and as an advocate for children’s mental health through the Children and Adolescence Services Association (CASA). Melanie has three adult children and two grandchildren living in Edmonton.
Alex Nagy	Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
Alex Nagy has had a rewarding professional engineering career with extensive experience in department and program management (19 years) and the project management, planning, design, and construction of urban infrastructure projects for numerous public and private sector clients. The majority of his career has been spent in the private sector (Consulting Engineering) plus nine years in the public sector (Engineering Management with Strathcona County and Construction Management with Alberta Transportation). Alex has a keen interest in urban planning and development in Edmonton and other municipalities. He has provided consulting services to the City of Edmonton on close to a full time basis over the last 12 years. He has extensive experience in the land development area both as a consulting engineer to developers and as an approving authority working for Strathcona County for numerous residential, industrial, and commercial developments. He is married with three children and has lived in Edmonton for 44 years. He enjoys travel, nature, and the great outdoors.
