

Edmonton Ward Population Changes Over Time<sup>1</sup>

In a few different contexts, questions have been raised about the population changes within the wards as well as the schedule of reviews of the boundaries for each ward.

Ward Name	2009 Municipal	2012 Municipal	2014 Municipal	2016 Municipal	2019 Municipal	2025 Est.
Nakota Isga	6 Ward Model 2x Councillor s per Ward	64,515	68,364	71,340	79,179	101,271
Anirniq		68,557	72,534	74,211	80,786	99,929
tastawiyiniwak		64,907	68,020	72,113	76,674	95,574
Dene		70,363	75,101	78,819	84,971	101,357
O-day'min		66,041	70,386	71,679	77,478	85,982
Métis		72,281	76,136	72,367	72,819	96,149
sipiwiyiniwak		62,196	64,895	63,048	63,255	118,626
papastew		66,993	68,857	67,365	63,357	95,755
pihêsiwin		68,183	79,222	87,038	106,724	98,262
Ipiihkoohkanipiaoh si		72,954	76,693	78,075	83,752	107,046
Karhiio		72,490	74,922	71,060	71,678	109,260
Sspomitapi		66,759	80,447	92,332	111,550	100,481
Total Population	770,516	816,239	875,577	899,447	972,223	1,209,692

Ward Boundary Review Overview

- Bylaw 15142 City of Edmonton Ward Boundaries and Council Composition Bylaw details the composition of Council and impacts the number of Councillors/Wards.
- Council Policy C469B Ward Boundary Design details the process of ward boundary review including types and criteria for review.

<sup>1</sup> City of Edmonton Municipal Census Data - 2009 - 2019 - City of Edmonton Open Data

Attachment 3

- In the fourth quarter of the year following an election a report is presented to Council and recommend either major or minor adjustments to Ward boundaries. The report will include:
  - Population of each Ward
  - Projected population of each Ward
  - Estimated number of electors who reside in each Ward+
- The last Ward boundary review was presented to council in Q4 of 2022 and the next report is due to Council in Q4 2026.
- A Ward Boundary Commission (Council Committee) is established in the third election cycle after the last Ward Boundary Commission. The last Commission presented its report in May of 2020 and the next Commission is due to be established after the 2029 Election.