CURBSIDE SERVICE TRANSITION RATES

The Curbside Service Transition Rate - Year 1/2/3/4 in Table 1 above will be charged to the limited class of home owners that are eligible in accordance with the foregoing definitions and eligibility criteria:

Definitions

- (a) “Curbside Service Transition Rate” means any one or all of the following line items in Table 1 above as the context so requires: (i) Curbside Transition Rate Year 1, (ii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 2, (iii) Curbside Transition Rate Year 3, (iv) Curbside Transition Rate Year 4.

- (b) “Ineligible” means a home that does not qualify to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate due to any one or more of the criteria described under the heading below “Ineligibility Criteria”.

Eligibility Criteria and Implementation

- (a) Homes that received communal collection services for at least two consecutive years that are subsequently designated to change to curbside collection services are eligible to be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate over a maximum 47 month period.
- (b) When the change in service occurs, the home owner will be charged the Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1 the next calendar month after the change through until December 31 in that calendar year for a maximum 11 month period.
- (c) Each subsequent calendar year between January 1 through December 31 after the first period of time the Curbside Service Transition Rate Year 1, the home owner will be charged the next incremental yearly Curbside Service Transition Rate described in Table 1 above.

Ineligibility Criteria for Curbside Service Transition Rates

A home will immediately become ineligible and will not be charged a Curbside Service Transition Rate if:

- (i) The owner named as the utility account holder for the home is changed at any time after the City gives notice that collection services at the home will change from communal collection to curbside collection;
- (ii) The home owner requests and is approved to receive a different size of cart after carts have been issued to the home following the change in collection service from communal collection to curbside collection; or,
- (iii) The home owner chooses to participate in any alternate collection program other than the assisted waste program.
