

Board Assignments

Local and Composite Assessment Review Boards

Recommendation:

That the appointments to Local and Composite Assessment Review Boards for the purpose of hearing the 2013 assessment complaints, as outlined in Attachment 1 of the February 20, 2013, Corporate Services report 2013COC033, be approved.

Report Summary

This report recommends the required assignment of City appointees to Local and Composite Assessment Review Boards, for hearing the 2013 assessment complaints.

Report

- Council has reappointed 17 members to serve on Assessment Review Boards for the 2013 Term.
- The members have received the necessary training and Council is asked to formally assign the members to each of the Local and Composite Assessment Review Boards as recommended in Attachment 1.
- Under Bylaw 15361, Council has established:
  - three-member Local Assessment Review Boards (that predominantly hear complaints regarding residential property with three or fewer dwelling units)
  - one-member Local Assessment Review Boards (that hear preliminary and jurisdictional matters pertaining to complaints)

- three-member Composite Assessment Review Boards, which includes two members appointed by Council and one member appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs (that hear complaints that do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Local Assessment Review Boards, such as apartment buildings, hotels, etc.)

Policy

- C478 – Process for Appointments and Reappointments of Members to City of Edmonton Quasi-Judicial Boards relates to the process of appointment/reappointment of members to the Assessment Review Board as a whole.
- Sections 454.1(1) and 454.2(1) of the Municipal Government Act outlines the legislative requirements of appointing members to each Local and Composite Assessment Review Board.

Corporate Outcomes

Improve Edmonton's Livability – The City provides opportunities for and values citizen input.

Justification of Recommendation

Under the Municipal Government Act, Council establishes and appoints members to one or more Local and Composite Assessment Review Boards.
