

Edmonton Combative Sports Commission - Appointment Recommendation

Board	Members	Appointment Term
Edmonton Combative Sports Commission	Appointment (1) Manav Deol	Commencing upon appointment to: April 30, 2022

Below is a brief public bio as provided by the new Appointee:

Manav Deol	Edmonton Combative Sports Commission
Manav Deol is a lawyer with expertise in professional sports. He currently works in hockey operations as a player agent for an Edmonton-based sports agency specializing in the representation of NHL hockey players. He has also previously worked as a labour and employment lawyer for a regional law firm and as the Managing Director of the Business of Hockey Institute, a non-profit organization created by accomplished hockey executives across the country to improve economic outcomes in amateur and professional hockey. Manav’s volunteer efforts are focused on increasing access to grassroots sport, and advocating for professional sport as a vehicle to further build and unify the Edmonton community. He is a Board Member of Free Footie, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing vulnerable children with the opportunity to play soccer at no cost to them or their families, and a member of the Advisory Board and Executive Committee of local professional soccer team, FC Edmonton.	