

City Plan Safety Outcomes

The city-building outcomes were developed to help translate Council's strategic goals into a City Plan context by cross-referencing them with a set of guiding values, resulting in 24 unique outcomes shaped by what we heard from Edmontonians. The city-building outcomes are about the human experience and describe the conditions that the City Plan will aim to achieve. This table shows the outcomes's relationship to safety.

1.0 I want to BELONG and contribute
1.1 Edmonton fosters wellness and mental health by providing opportunities for all people to engage in community life and supporting those who are isolated or marginalized.
1.2 Edmontonians can connect, be active in their community, and celebrate Edmonton's heritage, diversity, and unique identity.
2.0 I want to LIVE in a place that feels like home
2.1 Edmontonians feel safe and secure in their communities and benefit from public spaces and infrastructure that support health and wellbeing.
2.2 Edmontonians have the ability to live locally, with access to diverse and affordable housing options in communities that support their daily needs
3.0 I want opportunities to THRIVE
3.1 Edmontonians acknowledge and celebrate Indigenous heritage while honouring the diverse cultures, perspectives and experiences residents bring from around the world.

4.0 I want ACCESS within my city

4.1 Edmonton advances equity through access to barrier-free spaces, facilities and transportation networks.

4.3 Edmonton's transportation system connects residents and businesses, creating opportunities and building partnerships throughout the region.

4.4 Edmontonians benefit from improved public transit and high-quality active transportation networks which reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

5.0 I want to PRESERVE what matters most

5.1 Edmonton protects, expands and improves access to its natural systems and open spaces in support of biodiversity and the health and enjoyment of all Edmontonians.

5.2 Edmonton protects and enhances its public amenities, cultural and built heritage, and urban agriculture for future generations

5.4 Edmonton's natural and physical systems provide security and resilience against extreme weather events and other environmental hazards.

6.0 I want to be able to CREATE and innovate

6.1 Edmonton fosters citizen leadership, capacity building and co-creation.
