Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta

Voices of Diversity

$25,000

This project will catalogue, digitize, preserve, and exhibit 32 seminal works from the FAVA Media Arts Collection. These works reflect and illustrate the wide diversity of the organization's filmmakers. It will feature voices of women, LGBTQ2 community members, Indigenous people, newcomers, and the working poor. The project will not only provide a new opportunity for these stories to be told, but will also encourage artists who encounter barriers of ethnicity, gender, and economics to contribute their voices to future works of media art.
