

Calls for Justice - Alignment with the City’s Strategic Planning Framework

Connect Edmonton (2019 - 2028)	Of the four strategic goals outlined in Connect Edmonton, two goals and the related indicators for achieving impact are highly aligned with the Calls for Justice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Healthy City Indicators: Community Wellness, Equity, Neighbourly, Personal Wellness ● Urban Places Indicators: Growth Patterns, Housing Options, Neighbourhood Vibrancy, Transportation System, Urban Business
City Plan	The section of the City Plan titled “Planning for People” demonstrates alignment with the Calls for Justice in several areas as noted below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 1.1.3.2 Participate in multilateral efforts to address violence against Indigenous women and girls. ● 1.2.3.2 Develop opportunities for public education and storytelling on the contributions of Indigenous peoples, culture and history. ● 2.2.2.3 Increase access to social supports and resources including safe, clean and affordable housing options for the urban Indigenous population. ● 2.3.3.2 Collaborate with adjacent municipalities and Enoch Cree Nation to identify opportunities for shared investment in recreation and cultural facilities ● 2.4.1.1 Through relationship building, integrate Indigenous values and knowledge with environmental management and stewardship practices to enhance environmental protection. ● 3.1.2.4 Continue to respond to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s Calls to Action that reference municipal governments including adopting the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous People as a framework for reconciliation. ● 5.2.1.5 Collaborate with Indigenous communities to understand and recognize cultural landscapes and traditional land use areas. ● 6.2.1.5 Encourage art and creative enterprise to celebrate Indigenous history and culture.
Corporate Business Plan (2019 - 2022)	Two key program areas that align with the Calls for Justice include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Public Programs (Community Development) - support Indigenous communities and citizens in their economic, social, and cultural development with the Indigenous Peoples Strategy Council Initiative ● Public Programs (Economic Development) - grow the Indigenous business sector by procuring goods and services through the Indigenous Procurement initiative